Latest Networking Success

Barking and Dagenham Chamber of Commerce held the First Tuesday of the Month Networking Evening at CEME Conference Centre on 7th June 6-8pm. This event, free to members and £10 to non-members, proved a huge success, and an excellent chance to meet local business people, make contacts and raise the profile of your business with over 40 attendees from various local industries.

Under the Spotlight

AEC, a leading independent health, safety & environmental consultant, are hosting 'A Spotlight on Health & Safety - Healthy Workplaces: Good for you, Good for Business' at CEME Conference Centre on 23rd June. The seminar is FREE to attend and will feature guest speakers from HSE and UKAS providing information and experience that will be invaluable to your business.

Breaking Research

Research carried out at HRD showed over 70% of training providers stating a clear preference for a dedicated business venue. The key advantages identified were the professionalism reflected onto the client, the experience of the events team and the bespoke, state-of-the-art facilities found in centres such as CEME CC.

Going the Extra Mile...

"Thank you for everything you did for us at CEME, we had a great time and your venue was perfect for us."

Waitrose

"May I say a big thank you to all your team who really did go the extra mile for us through the whole planning and ultimate execution of the event. We will certainly look at other opportunities to use the facilities again and I will be recommending you to all my customers for their events or training facilities."

Brand2Promote

"CEME is very good for us to hold our conferences due to its location and flexible working space, especially The Pod which is ideal for presentations and debate. Not only is the venue excellent, we also found the team focussed on our needs, highly flexible and keen to help"
